PERSONALS.

By W. Baxter Owen, D.

President of Trinity College, is in the city.

H. N. Montford McGee, member of the House from Person county, has happily recovered from his recent dangerous illness, and yesterday for the first time attended his duties. The presence of this distinguished gentleman gives great pleasure to his colleagues and to his people.

Judge A. C. Avery, of Morganton, is at the Y. M. C. A. building, of Wilmington, in the city.

LOADER, THE TAILOR.—Of one thing there is no question, and that is, that Loader the Tailor gives up garments which both as to quality of goods, style and fit are unequalled.

Those who wear the nobly garments he turns out are fully prepared to assert these things. At Mr. Loader's establishment over Tucker's store will be found lines of all the fashionable and seasonable goods, which will be promptly made up in a manner sure to please customers. The prices are as low as the market, and the customers will be well satisfied. Recollect these things and pay Loader a visit.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—

The ladies of the congregation of this church will on Tuesday evening next give a musical entertainment at the residence of Mr. L. E. Hart, at the corner of Harrington and Hargett streets. They will make the affair very enjoyable, and there will be a abundance of the choicest edibles. The object of the entertainment is to raise funds to complete the new church, which is now well on its way to completion. They will patronize it as a worthy cause and in all possible ways. The pleasant and tasteful style in which the ladies always conduct these entertainments needs no mention.

THE NORTHERN SETTLERS CONVENTION.

The convention of settlers who since the war have come from the North to settle in the South, and who are now assembling at the Metropolitan

Hotel, Raleigh, N. C., for the purpose of discussing the various questions connected with the settlement of the South, will adjourn on Saturday next, and will then move to the

South, and will adjourn on Saturday
